Over the years, ROBLOX has used advertising to generate revenue for their company, which they generate through in-game purchases (microtransactions) or advertisements (which can be annoying for the players). In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.

Users can report a game if they feel like it does not follow the rules. Either the game will be deleted or the owner will be warned, but most of the time the game is deleted. On January 5, 2021, a legacy avatar called Trollface became unusable because of DMCA claims from its artist. As such, ROBLOX disabled all avatars that use his artwork. It was later re-enabled after copyright claims were retracted.[39]

On September 11, 2021, Roblox announced that they would be adding new systems to help curb and prevent problems like "Miner's Haven". They stated that users who are reported for breaking these rules will be put on a probationary moderation period, or P-mod. P-mods can say they had violated these rules for up to 72 hours. If the user continues to break the rules and continue breaking it after 72 hours, Roblox will issue a permanent ban for both the user and their account. The users who are in this moderation period will not be able to play Roblox games until 72 hours pass from when the user is released from the P-mod status. The users will also receive a warning from Roblox before they are released from the P-mod status.

In July 2021, Roblox had allegedly banned several high-profile creators due to the fact they made violent games. Although Roblox claims users were banned "due to improper behaviour" nothing has been proven yet. The situation is occurring in many forums and websites. In July 2021, ROBLOX put out a statement saying that they did not ban any creators, but instead were involved in a legal dispute with the people who claimed to have been banned.[82] They later said that anyone who was banned for making offensive content was "part of an organized effort by bad actors to scam our users. We have no tolerance for this behavior and we're doing everything we can to protect our community." [83]

Roblox has been criticized for allowing other companies to make games on their site such as "Mining Simulator", which is a game that contains copyrighted material from BeamNG.drive, and "Brain Simulator", which is a clear clone of Brain Cube (which was also created by the same person who created Brain Simulator), and copyrighted material from several other games such as Robloxian Highschool and Backyard Zombies.
